

Colonnade® Maypole Apple

Malus 'Maypole'

Description

An exciting new columnar type of tree that grows straight up with many narrow side branches. The fruit is borne on branches as well as the main leader. The incredibly unique form will allow those with the smallest of yards with just two square feet of space. Mainly a cooking apple, the fruit makes delicious jam and jelly. Maypole has attractive deep pink flowers in spring that make way to small, red fruits in early to mid-September.

Attributes

Height
8-10'

Spread
2'

Shape
Columnar

Foliage
Green

Fall Foliage

Exposure
Full Sun

Zone
4-8