

Wolf River Apple

Malus 'Wolf River'

Description

Wisconsin, 1875. An old variety, hardy and long lived. Best known for its large size - up to 5" diameter fruit. Color is pale yellow to green with carmine-red blushes and stripes. Primarily used as a cooking apple.

Attributes

Height
Varies

Spread
varies

Shape

Foliage

Fall Foliage

Exposure
Full Sun

Zone
4-7